

were no keys in it. I told him I hadⁱⁿ them and that Mr Morgan had taken the key out by mistake and put them in his pocket. Mr Morgan came over and said that there were no keys in it when he took it over that morning. I got excited and when I thought about it I didn't remember putting the keys in the car when I got down to Aunt Nettie. I told him that we had ~~none~~ ^{no} keys at home and he said he would get someone to bring ~~for~~ me home and get them so one of the garage men brought me up and got them. Cox was thunderstruck when I came in the yard in a Deo. with a man!

Tuesday night Pop had an errand over to Clifford so we went along and went to Kingsley, then around to Watford and home. Got here around 10:15 - (ten: fifteen). Last night it was Senegwai! at the Baptist church and Mum went. (Pet came back
